FLORIDA COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN Launches On-Line Florida Women's Resource Directory

TALLAHASSEE, FL - March 16, 2017 - The Florida Commission on the Status of Women (FCSW) proudly announces the launch of its new online Florida Women's Resource Directory. The Directory currently includes more than 250 listings of organizations vital to improving the status of women and families in Florida.

The directory is one of the many ways the Commission focuses on providing a collaborative platform for those seeking information on issues that affect women, girls and their families in our state. Each of the 67 counties is unique and we value and applaud the incredible work being done by the hundreds of organizations in each community. We are all interested in improving the well-being of Florida women and girls - and by extension, all Floridians..

There is great power in uniting and connecting. Finding each other, however, is not always easy. The Florida Women's Resource On-line Directory is a way to fill this information gap and to connect groups and organizations vital to improving the status of women and families in Florida.

The powerful search feature can be used when seeking information on a specific listings or all organizations in a city or county. Groups can also be viewed by category of services offered. Each listing contains contact information and a link to the organization's website, if available. Listings are free and are only provided to organizations serving Florida women. To request your organization's information be listed in this directory, please complete this form.

For more information on the Florida Women's Resource Directory please contact the Florida Commission on the Status of Women at 850-414-3531 or email ksciba@fcsw.net.

The FCSW is a non-partisan body representing communities from the Panhandle to the Keys with a goal of raising awareness and celebrating the contributions and successes of all Floridians. The Commission provides communication, promotion, and collaboration among the hundreds of organizations working in all 67 counties that are focused on the welfare of the women of Florida. They are the presenting organization of the prestigious Florida Women's Hall of Fame and the FCSW Florida Achievement Awards.
